BIG REPUBLICAN RALLY-DAY AND NIGHT, OCTOBER 22.

FIERCEST FIGHT OF THE WAR

MORE DETAILS AND CERTAINTY OF RESULT.

Continued Success of Japanese—Russia Forced to Retreat—Fought with Desperation—Many Guns Taken.

No appreciable progress has been made in the projected advance southward of the Russian army under Kuroptkin since the initial success of the movement in the capture of Benshiaputse. Stubborn fighting continues along practically the entire front. Oyama reports capture of thirty guns from some of their advanced positions. Kuroptkin's report to the emperor is couched in guarded terms and claims nothing in the way of accomplished results.

Reports from the Russian military commander at Port Arthur show the Japanese have brought shell fire to bear upon the inner fortresses. The garrison, however, is represented to be hopeful of the outcome of the siege.

Field Headquarters Second Japanese Army, Oct. 13.—During Monday night the Japanese occupied hills held by the Russians on the right and center of the line, the Russians falling back a distance of three miles. The Japanese infantry advanced within 1500 yards of the Russian lines Tuesday noon and defeated the Russians in a fierce counter attack, almost annihilating the attacking force. The whole force made three charges. The artillery was not silenced despite fierce shelling all day.

Tokio, Oct. 13.—It is reported the Russians are retiring along the entire front. The Russian force at Benshihu is probably enveloped. Marshal Oyama reporting from the field Wednesday afternoon expresses satisfaction at the progress of operations and fighting between the Tallez and Hun rivers. The center and right armies made substantial gains. The left army was desperately struggling to envelop the Russian right. In an engagement at midnight of the 11th the Japanese captured two field guns and eight ammunition wagons. Major General Murru was wounded and one colonel killed. Preliminary reports indicate that the bulk of the steamer Pufing's cargo was ammunition. She flies the German flag.

The extended report received from the headquarters of the Manchurian army, a brief summary of which was published this afternoon, indicates the Japanese were generally successful in the fighting of yesterday gained decided advantages. Operations designed to isolate the Russians at Benshihu are progressing favorably. The number engaged in the struggle exceeds the forces which fought at Liao Yang. In some places the fighting subsisted in desperation anything shown since the war began. A telegram covering yesterday's operations says: "In the direction of Benshihu the enemy's attacks have been repulsed at all points. Pursuit of the enemy was undertaken by the main force of the right and the center armies and has progressed remarkably."

WAR REPORTS.

Chefoo, Oct. 13.—Local Russians confirm the report the Russian battleship Retwizan was recently hit by a shell from one of the big Japanese guns, but they claim the damage done was slight. Two sailors were killed. Another shell burst near the gunboat Gilik, killing her commander and wounding others. The Russians admit the new Japanese guns boldly threaten the harbor docks etc. Tokio, Oct. 13.—We learned circles report General Otoh captured twenty-five guns, making a total of thirty taken in the fighting south of Mukden. The latest reports indicate success of the Japanese in fighting continues.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 13.—General Stoezel telegrams from Port Arthur that Russians recently captured Signal Hill. Japanese bombardment interferes with the new batteries. Bombardment is becoming more and more violent.

Tokio, Oct. 13. (Evening).—Latest telegrams from the front indicate continuation of Japanese success. Okurakert army alone bagged twenty-five guns. Russians made two desperate counter attacks against the Japanese left, but were repulsed with heavy slaughter. The Japanese commanders, in their reports, give expression to the admiration of the valor of the Russians. The Manchurian headquarters in the telegram sent to day, reports as follows:

"Since last report our right army has been continuing a vigorous pursuit of the enemy toward the north. The column which was despatched in the direction of Shih Chien Tau to intercept the retreat of the enemy from Benshihu, continues its attack on the Russians and expects to occupy the line between Tungshankou and Huchiaokhuktau to day. The enemy in this direction appeared to retreat continuously until dusk last evening. The report that a large column of the enemy is moving southwest and is commencing the erection of defensive works at Chien Huang Chitau, cannot be verified. The number of guns captured by the center column of the left army is sixteen instead of eight, as previously reported. The right wing of the center column of the left army captured four guns."

St. Petersburg, Oct. 13.—Reporting to the emperor under date of Oct. 13, Kuroptkin says:

"Last night and throughout the day the Manchurian army was engaged in a fierce fight. The Japanese concentrated a large force against our dispositions on the center and right wing. We carried on the fight from advanced positions and it became necessary to support those advanced guards from the main position. The right wing held its advanced position and only at nightfall under my orders, retired to the principal positions. In the center the troops were forced to retire from the advance in the main position about 2 p.m."

"According to reports and to my own observations the fighting was most desperate. We repulsed numerous Japanese attacks and ourselves assumed the offensive."

"During the night our troops on the right flank recaptured at the point of the bayonet a village which had been lost the previous evening. On the left flank we were fighting for position of a pass has been continued. Our troops scaled almost inaccessible rocks and held their ground for two days, gradually approaching the enemy."

"I have not yet received a report of the result of day's fight on the left wing. Under condition of fighting the losses are necessarily considerable. I have ordered that the positions we now hold be stubbornly defended to-morrow."

AT KUROPATKIN'S HEADQUARTERS.

Kuroptkin's Headquarters, Oct. 11, via Mukden, Oct. 12, Morning.—Nemirovich Danchenko, Russian war correspondent, telegraphs the Associated Press details of the Russian advance from Mukden beginning Oct. 6. Positions of various bodies of Russian and Japanese troops are given and progress of the Russians and retirement of the Japanese described with much detail. The Russian advance was general on the 8th and the Japanese slowly retreated. That day after fierce artillery fire the Japanese abandoned their hill positions at Benshiaputse, leaving their ammunition boxes behind. It is reported the Japanese lost heavily here.

Meanwhile hard fighting was proceeding on the extreme east, says the correspondent, "where we drove back the Japanese step by step. Troops we met here were evidently a fresh importation and not those opposed to us at Liao Yang."

The same day the Voronoski regiment decimated the hills in front of Yentai and entrenched, driving back several attacks. That night the Japanese retired along the whole line. Up to Oct. 10, the Russians lost 229 killed or wounded. The Japanese 200 killed or wounded. The Russians made three charges. The artillery was not silenced despite fierce shelling all day.

Tokio, Oct. 13.—It is reported the Russians are retiring along the entire front. The Russian force at Benshihu is probably enveloped. Marshal Oyama reporting from the field Wednesday afternoon expresses satisfaction at the progress of operations and fighting between the Tallez and Hun rivers. The center and right armies made substantial gains. The left army was desperately struggling to envelop the Russian right. In an engagement at midnight of the 11th the Japanese captured two field guns and eight ammunition wagons. Major General Murru was wounded and one colonel killed. Preliminary reports indicate that the bulk of the steamer Pufing's cargo was ammunition. She flies the German flag.

The extended report received from the headquarters of the Manchurian army, a brief summary of which was published this afternoon, indicates the Japanese were generally successful in the fighting of yesterday gained decided advantages. Operations designed to isolate the Russians at Benshihu are progressing favorably. The number engaged in the struggle exceeds the forces which fought at Liao Yang. In some places the fighting subsisted in desperation anything shown since the war began. A telegram covering yesterday's operations says: "In the direction of Benshihu the enemy's attacks have been repulsed at all points. Pursuit of the enemy was undertaken by the main force of the right and the center armies and has progressed remarkably."

GENERAL'S CLAIM VICTORY.

Headquarters Japanese Left Army, Oct. 12, 7 p.m., via Fusan, Oct. 14.—The left army advanced last night and early this morning occupied a position close to the Russians. The Japanese attacked along the whole line, driving the Russians out of positions which they returned to yesterday. At 6 o'clock this afternoon the Russians were retreating northward in disorder. The Japanese captured a complete battery. The Japanese are firing and shelling the retreating Russians, whose loss is probably large.

At 6 p.m. victory of the Japanese is left to day was decisive. The left wing of the left army threatened to envelop the Russian right, compelling the Russians to retreat. The Japanese artillery, including batteries captured from Russians, did their usual splendid work in shelling trenches and retreating Russians.

London, Oct. 13.—The Standard's correspondent in the field with Kuroki telegraphing Oct. 11, says:

"After two days of heavy fighting the enemy's resistance was broken this afternoon and the Russians are now in full retreat."

The Mail's Tokio correspondent asserts pursuit by the Japanese is working great havoc to dispirited Russians, who left their dead and wounded on the field. Russian forces are estimated at 200,000, with 1,000 guns, and the correspondent says the fighting was the most severe and terrible of the whole war."

SULLIVAN BEATS ATELL.

St. Louis, Oct. 13.—In a fight to night for the title of featherweight champion of the world Tommy Sullivan, of Brooklyn, won the decision over Abe Ateell of San Francisco, in the fifth round of what was to have been a twenty round contest. Ateell went out with a low left uppercut to the stomach.

LADY CURZON'S CONDITION.

Wilmers Castle, Oct. 13.—There was a renewal of anxiety regarding the condition of Lady Curzon. She passed a restless night and was somewhat exhausted and PERT.

CURED HEMORRHAGE OF THE LUNGS.

"Several years since my lungs were so badly affected that I had many hemorrhages," writes A. M. Ake, of Wood, Ind. "I took treatment with several physicians without any benefit. I then started to take Foley's Honey and Tar and my lungs are now as sound as a bullet. I recommend it in advanced stages of lung trouble." For sale by J. A. Obermeyer, City Drug Store.

FAIRBANKS IN CHICAGO

RETURNS FROM TOUR TO PACIFIC COAST

Fourteen States Traversed and One Hundred and Eleven Speeches Made—Taft Speaks in New York—Other News.

Chicago, Oct. 13.—Senator Fairbanks returned to Chicago this evening from his campaign tour to the Pacific coast. The trip began at Chicago, Sept. 23, and occupied the entire twenty days since, extending not only to the Pacific coast, but also to Alaska. The distance traveled was 6,390 miles. Fourteen states were traversed, 111 speeches made and no material accident or delay occurred to mar the success of the tour. The highest day's record of speeches was made yesterday in Iowa, when between 7 in the morning and night fourteen addresses were delivered. Fairbanks announced himself as greatly pleased with the tour and said night he felt well and fresh as when he began the campaign.

Senator Fairbanks spoke to night addressed an audience that filled the First regiment armory to overflowing. Speaker Cannon also addressed the audience in his characteristic manner. Senator Fairbanks said in part:

"Standing here to night where William McKinley, our martyred president, once addressed you, the best greeting I can extend to you is that Theodore Roosevelt, leader of the Republican party to day, stands exactly for the same principles as McKinley, and these principles will not be changed one iota when Roosevelt is reelected to the white house Nov. 8. Our opponents say the money question has been irreconcilably settled. This is not exactly the fact, as congress may reverse and undo it to morrow if it sees fit, but such a thing will never happen as long as the Republican party is in power. To insure fixture of the money question it is necessary for the Republican party to have a majority in congress and this fact should not be lost sight of during the campaign."

"From my observations during my trip to the Pacific coast I can assure you in good faith that if conditions throughout the west can be taken as a criterion of sentiment throughout the country, then the Republican party will record a greater victory this year than it did four years ago. But the people must not become apathetic. To avoid a repetition of conditions which existed during the four years between 1882 and 1896, when the United States administration of the Democratic party was plunged into almost total demoralization, every loyal Republican must stand by his party and roll up such a majority for our principles in congressional districts that when congress opens for the next session such an overwhelming Republican majority will be found in their seats that it will be useless for our opponents to endeavor to enact visionary legislation."

General Taft spoke to night addressed an audience that filled the First regiment armory to overflowing. The speaker and his party were greatly pleased with the tour and said night he felt well and fresh as when he began the campaign.

BACON AT CHICAGO.

Chicago, Oct. 13.—Senator Bacon of Georgia reached Chicago to night after addressing a Democratic gathering at Elgin this afternoon. Bacon discussed the issues of the campaign as he viewed them, declaring Parker to be the hope of the south.

GREET DRYAN.

Fort Wayne, Ind., Oct. 13.—A great crowd greeted William J. Bryan at a political meeting here last night. A torchlight procession escorted the speaker and party to the hall. Bryan's argument followed closely addresses which he has delivered since the tour began.

FAVORS THE CANTEEN

Claimed to be of Great Moral Benefit to the Army by General Barton.

Washington, Oct. 13.—That the canteen does not do harm to the army is necessary does he regard the remedy for Barton in his annual report to the inspector general of the army, made to day.

"It seems to be the almost unanimous sentiment of the army," he says, "that on thinking about it meet the soldiers wants and tastes, is the canteen feature. The absence of this leads to silentness, military offenses, desertion and other crimes, as well as impaired discipline."

ASKS FOR INVESTIGATION.

Such is the lack of uniformity in sentences imposed by summary court martial in the navy and so imperatively necessary that Captain Deleh, Judge advocate general of the navy, in his annual report, approved by Secretary Morton, to day announces his intention to ask at an early date for an investigation of the whole subject by a board of officers appointed by the department.

FAVOR SALES OF BEER.

St. Louis, Oct. 13.—The Association of Military and Navy Surgeons to day adopted a resolution recommending the sale of beer permitted at army post exchanges, subject to certain regulations.

JUDGE PARKER.

New York, Oct. 13.—Judge Parker made his first visit to the national Democratic headquarters to day. It was announced he would speak to the press on the subject.

"I am here to do my duty," he said, "and to do my duty I must speak to the press."

NEW YORK REPUBLICANS.

New York, Oct. 13.—Many prominent Republicans were present to night at a ratification meeting and reception tendered by the Union League club to Lieutenant Governor Higgins, Republican candidate for governor, and ten of his associates on the state ticket. Cornelius N. Bliss, president of the club and treasurer of the national Republican committee, presided and introduced Secretary Taft. Taft opened with this declaration:

"Roosevelt's speech of acceptance and his letter of acceptance state the grounds upon which the Republican party asks continuance of their mandate of governor from the people with clearness and succinctness."

Considering the position of the opposition, he said:

"When we come to analyze the platform of the Democratic party, the speech of acceptance, or the letter of acceptance of its candidate or any speeches which its eloquent orators are making, we find, with one or two exceptions, an entire absence of any specification whatever."

He declared that in issuing the executive pension order Roosevelt had only followed precedents set by Cleveland and McKinley. Discussing the trusts, Taft pointed out that under Roosevelt's direction the attorney general proceeded against a combination of railroads which it allowed to stand as legal, "would justify and might even be justified by the union of all railroads of the country under a gigantic trust."

Judge Taft devoted a large part of his address to the Philippine question. He insisted the Filipinos are not fitted for self-government and showed that the Philippines cost him $100,000,000, instead of $50,000,000 as alleged by Judge Parker. The government expenses and alleged frauds in the post office department were considered, Taft controverting allegations of Democrats on both subjects.

SEIZURE OF GOODS.

Norfolk, Va., Oct. 13.—Seizure by customs officials at this port of Turkish and Persian goods valued at thousands of dollars, which were brought here from Europe, was made to day.

One of the ships, the Hunnidib, has created a sensation in naval circles. The master is now in the hands of the secretary of the navy for investigation.

INSANE PATIENT KILLED.

Pearl, Oct. 13.—Frederick Weber, of LaSalle county, was scalded to death in the bath room at the Illinois asylum for the insane in Pearl, Ill., Wednesday afternoon. The attendant says he tested the water and found it temperate, but the patient was so severely scalded that death quickly ensued.

INVESTIGATE DROWNINGS.

Houghton, Mich., Oct. 13.—Two bodies found in Portage lake to day were identified as those of William Hanna and Oliver Rintala, men.

The number of drownings in Portage lake for the past few weeks is suspiciously large and authorities are investigating.

A letter was read from Judge John F. Dillon, of this city, in which he discussed the constitutionality of President Roosevelt's executive pension order. Dillon held that Roosevelt acted entirely within the law in issuing the order and had no precedents similar orders issued by Cleveland and McKinley.

The club unanimously passed resolutions pledging support of members to the election of Roosevelt and Fairbanks and the state ticket.

NEW ARGUMENT BY HILL.

Wheeling, W. Va., Oct. 13.—David B. Hill injected a new argument into the Democratic national platform here to night—a straightforward condemnation of "government by injunction" and demand for a law granting a jury trial to persons held in contempt of court for violation of a restraining order of a federal judge.

The Democratic national platform sustains this position, although in guarded terms. He told of introducing and securing the passage of a bill through the senate in 1890 to this end; then recited Republican opposition in the house since that time, which was ground for making the question a party issue to be called to the front at this time. He declared no man had a right to quit work when and where he pleased. "The position of the Democratic party upon this subject is right," he concluded. "A Democratic national victory will mean the enactment of the measure mentioned and government by injunction, as here explained, will no longer exist."

The crowd desirous to hear Vice President Bradford, D. B., of Connecticut, who had made two meetings before necessary, waited until he arrived.

BACON AT CHICAGO.

Chicago, Oct. 13.—Mass meeting and concert of 1,000 voices at the alcove to night inaugurated the beginning of the International Christian church convention, which will continue one week. The concert to night was in commemoration of the 100th anniversary of the founding of the organization, which now embraces 10,000 churches, 1,300,000 communicants, with 500 missionaries abroad and 600 at home.

Des Moines, Oct. 13.—More than $300,000 was given to various public charities, schools and churches by the international Christian church convention, which will be as far apart as they were yesterday and predictions were freely made that no final action would be taken at this time. Rev. Dr. J. Lewis Parkes, of New York, in behalf of those who made the minority report on the proposed divorce canon, withdrew their recommendation, but the withdrawal does not mean that there will be any let-up in the fight against the proposal in protestant clergymen remarrying innocent persons in a divorce suit for infidelity while the former partner lives. Members of the minority considered that the situation would be less complicated by the withdrawal of the report.

DOING WELL.

Chicago, Oct. 13.—The usual quarterly dividend of $2 per share from net earnings was declared to day by the Pullman company. The annual statement for the fiscal year shows a total revenue of $24,729, and net surplus for the year of $3,741,625. This, together with the surplus brought forward makes the total $38,374. The total number of passengers carried during the year was 13,312,688, or 991,608 more

ENGLAND.

The concert season of London will be exceptionally fine this season. The symphony orchestra, the opera companies, their "festival" affairs, and various concert companies have made many attractive promises. Whether the famous popular concerts will be resumed is still a matter of uncertainty.

Ernest Newton has started a new school of pianoforte accompaniment at 126 Oxford street, London. This is the first school of the kind that has been established. The intention is to supply a want and give pianists the opportunity of obtaining a thorough training in much neglected subjects.

GERMANY.

The director of the Freiburg opera announces that he will give during the coming season four performances to working people. The price of seats to all parts of the house will be 10 pfennigs (10 cents).

Two or three tons of slack, (one of the cheapest fuels) will heat the ordinary size house, giving as continuous and uniform heat as heretofore could only be obtained with hard coal.

Durability

This is the only construction where air is admitted over the fire that will stand for any length of time. Our firepot is practically indestructible.

Sutter & Lonergan

Figure in four parts of J. S. Bach; third an undate or adagio of Haydn or Mozart; fourth, one of the following Beethoven sonatas op. 78, 81, 90, 101, 109, 110, 111; fifth, a mazurka, a nocturne or a ballade of Chopin; sixth, one or two selections from the "Phantasiestücke" or "Kreisleriana" of Schumann; seventh, an etude by Liszt.

The great whining composer (who, as said before, may also be the pianist) must produce: first, a concertostück for piano and orchestra (two copies of the second, or orchestral arrangement for a second piano and all the parts for the orchestra); second, a sonata for piano, solo or with accompaniment of strung instruments (two copies of all the parts); third, some short pieces for the piano (two copies of each). These compositions must be performed by the composer and handed in MS.

AMERICA AND AMERICANS.

At his first New York appearance with orchestra (Carnegie Hall, Dec. 5) Ysaye will play the Beethoven concerto and the "Scotch" fantaisie; by Max Bruch. At his second appearance (Dec. 18) Ysaye is booked for the Saint-Saens and Mozart (E flat) concertos. The two concertos with orchestra will be followed by several recitals, also at Carnegie Hall.

The success of the Philadelphia orchestra, financially, for another season is assured. At the meeting of the women's committee on Thursday afternoon last it was announced that more than enough money to sustain the orchestra had been subscribed.

A special musical service of sacred compositions by Samuel Coleridge-Taylor was given on Tuesday evening, Oct. 4, at the Church of Crucifixion, Philadelphia.

Mme. Jane Olmstead, an American pianist residing here, is becoming very much a favorite in Paris and London "society" musical circles.

Majora Church, a little thirteen year old violin prodigy, has been engaged to give a recital tour this winter. She will appear in New York several times.

FRANCE.

Harold Bauer, the great pianist, has been in Paris, where he will teach for this season. The Musical Courier of Oct. 5 published a letter written by Mr. Bauer in which he recounted some of his experiences in South America during his late tour with the cellist Pablo Casals.

His sarcastic letter is very entertaining reading. That he considers music in its infancy in South America is clearly shown by the following sentences from the letter:

"Not for anything would I refer to the elegant and charming editor-in-chief of an Anglo-Argentine newspaper, himself art critic and enthusiastic amateur, who asked me what operas I intended performing at my concert. I will say nothing of the fashionable afternoon paper and its price of $5 per lire for its musical critiques.

Wild horses should not drag me from the story of the violoncello, 'minus a back,' that was offered to Casals to play upon . . . nor the story of the composer who never wrote in minor keys . . . nor the adventure with the lady who thought that the place by Bechstein was the prettiest thing on the program."

CHAMBERLAIN'S COUGH REMEDY.

No one who is acquainted with its good qualities can be surprised at the great popularity of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It not only cures colds and grip effectively and permanently, but prevents these diseases from resulting in pneumonia.

It is also a certain cure for croup.

Whooping cough is not dangerous when this remedy is given.

It contains no opium or other harmful substance and may be given as confidently to a baby as to an adult.

It is so pleasant to take. When all of these facts are taken into consideration, it is not surprising that people in foreign lands, as well as at home, esteem this remedy very highly and very few are willing to take any other after having once used it.

For sale by all leading druggists.

Chicago, Oct. 13—Peoria county was selected to day by Judge Korsten as the place for the trial of the Iroquois theater manslaughter trials.

The question has been asked—In what way are Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets superior to the ordinary cathartic and liver pills?

Our answer is—They are easier and more pleasant to take and their effect is so gentle and so agreeable

JOHN R. DAVIS,
Chairman County Central Com.
W. M. MORRISON,
Secretary County Central Com.
FRANK J. HEINL,
Chairman Speakers' Com.

The people who expected Mr.
Roosevelt to become anemic and timid because he is a candidate for re-election are finding that he has not parted with his skeleton, and that his backbone is still in working order.

The news that Gorman is to be the real chairman of the Democratic committee is not cheering to some of the Democrats who have had experience with the boss in question. They know that he is for Gorman first, last and all the time.

The result of Hill's attempt to tag Jerome reminds one of what happened to the advertising agent who tried to paste a bill on the side of a bee hive
and upset the hive.

It is only kind to remind the Democratic party that the first frost of the season is not far off and they had better take in their good resolutions before those young and tender plants come to grief.

It is a little difficult to discover what kind of a machine the Democratic party thinks it has, but to hazard
a guess, one might call it a bolting machine.

"Marse Henry" Watterson seems to feel hurt because his party has objected to his agreeing with it in vigorous language. The sympathy of all right-minded men should be given to Colonel Watterson.

It was supposed that Hill would appear in the background at the New York state Democratic convention, but perhaps the photographer took the picture on the wrong side of the group.

It may be possible that in case Mr.
Parker should be elected to the presidency there would be no immediate revision of the tariff, and yet the financial and industrial interests of the country would suffer largely from the election of a Democratic president, which might be followed before the end of his term by a Democratic congress. It is not safe to take any risk at all in the matter.

ROOSEVELT AND PROSPERITY

Confidence in the election of Theodore Roosevelt and a Republican congress is in evidence on every hand.
Nothing so fully reflects the prosperity of our country as do our postal receipts, which continue to increase throughout the entire country from month to month. Even the business done during the midsummer months of July and August show most substantial gains over not only corresponding months of previous years, but over previous months of this year. These gains are in many cases as high as 15 to 20 per cent, the general average being somewhat over 12 per cent.

Coincident with this gain in postal business are the increased orders now being placed with our iron and steel manufacturers for steel rails and structural materials even at the well maintained pool prices. Another evidence is the unusual activity now taking place throughout the country in the booking of orders for the late fall and winter trade among our merchants. The hotels of New York are to day full of buyers from every part of the country, who are giving large orders and who report from their sections that business prospects were never brighter. In short, we have manifested on every hand a revival in business which is most substantial and with the harvesting of the crop and the splendid returns which are about to occur to the farmer, it would seem as if a record-breaking spring and winter were before us.

This will be fully materialized in case the Republican party is successful at the polls on the 8th of November.
Should the contrary be the case, however, we may look for a repetition of the conditions of 1892, and a consequent panic during 1906, which would correspond in a measure with the panic of 1903. Happily, there is no prospect of any such calamity distressing the American people and yet disaster is sure to come if Republican voters do not see to it that their votes are cast when the opportunity comes in November.

A Rearguard Action.
Already in the presidential campaign of this year the Democrats are fighting a "rear-guard action." The Russian General Skoropatkin has his troubles and has been fighting rearguard actions for some time, but his condition is good as compared with the condition of the present leaders of the Democratic party.

The Democracy is fighting a "rearguard action," and about the only troubles the Republicans have in the premises is that there will not be fun enough in the campaign. Even the "rear-guard action" appears to be about over.

Take Your Choice.

David B. Hill, the sponsor of the Democratic candidate for the presidency, said at St. Louis that he "did not know how Parker stood on the money question." For thirty years Hill and Parker have been intimately associated, socially and politically. If the statement made by Hill is to be believed, then Parker is too secretive a man to elect to the presidency; if false, then it was evidently made for the purpose of misleading the people; and if the people are to be deceived in one thing, why not in all the acts of the Democratic leaders?

Of all the disgusting arguments that a political party ever used, the personal attacks on Roosevelt by the Democrats take the lead. To an old timer the whole thing sounds so familiar. Between 1861 and 1865 we had a president who was unsparingly attacked by the Democracy. He was especially denounced as "unsafe." According to them he ruled without the constitution, which venerable document he trampled under foot; he usurped power belonging to congress;
he plunged the nation into needless war; he ruled without the consent of the governed; the example of Washington was frequently quoted, especially when the father of his country refused to consider a proposition to be made a dictator; how the charges were rung on this and the awful example of Abraham Lincoln held up to detestation and contempt, assuming to be the lord of the land, while the people's rights were shamefully abused. All this and more was said by the Democracy at that time when the fate of the country was hanging in the balance. How do they regard Abraham Lincoln now? Would one of the papers, at least in the north, even dare say of Lincoln what was common talk about him at that time by the opposition? Can a party regardly so wrong be trusted now? The people will certainly say no.

THE OUTLOOK.

As the day for election draws near it becomes more and more evident that the Republican ticket for the county is growing in favor, for the people are taking time to examine carefully the respective merits of the several candidates.

All well know who know anything of the situation that Bert VanWinkle is the kind of a man whom the people would like to see state's attorney.
He is prudent, well posted and notable man who departs from the path of strict duty by any sort of induc-ments, but one who will attend to the important office in a creditable manner if elected.

There is no denying the plain fact that the circuit clerk's office was never better managed previous to the incumbency of Charles L. Try-den and seldom has it been cared for so well. Everybody is treated politely no matter what may be his errand and the work is always promptly and well done.

The people like a man well qualified for his office and they know a doctor often has questions of importance to solve in the position of coroner and so it is that while a man may do well not a physician a regular practitioner has many advantages over his competitor, who has not had such experience.

For superintendent of schools
the party has chosen wisely in J. H.
DeLong for a candidate. He is a gentleman of good education, large experience and every way qualified for the place. He will bring to the duties of the office qualifications which are seldom equalled.

The place of county commissioner is one of the most important in the county. The position calls for a man with sound judgment, good business sense, wide acquaintance, ability to manage important affairs and always at his post of duty, unable to be induced to do anything but what he deems right. Such a man is George Debrick, the people's choice.

Mausel Dudley will do well as surveyor. He has labored long and hard to educate himself for the position and has striven against great obstacles to gain what he knows and such men deserve to be encouraged and the people will do wisely and well
to elect him.

The sessions of the state Federation of Colored Women's clubs, held Thursday, were of great interest, and a number of excellent papers were read. Officers were elected at the morning session and the business of the Federation was closed and the meeting adjourned at the evening session.

At the afternoon session the following was the order of business:

Resolutions.

"God Be With You Till We Meet Again."

At the conclusion of the program the new officers were installed by Mrs. Davis, of Chicago, national organizer, and the session stood adjourned.

The resolutions committee, consisting of Mrs. L. A. Davis, chairman, and Mrs. Lena L. Bryant, Mrs. Tillie Smith, Mrs. E. F. Earley and Mrs. J. M. Brown submitted resolutions tendering thanks and appreciation to the Woman's club, Phyllis Wheatley club, Art club No. 1 and the Ladies' Art club, of this city, and to the mayor, the ministry, the press and the citizens for courteous and kind treatment.

It was also resolved that the members of the federation use their influence on all occasion to elevate the home and to better the community by discouraging all boisterous conduct and rag-time music, and every action that does not uplift and to encourage things which tend toward the betterment of the race. The resolutions were unanimously adopted.

The different reports were very interesting. They showed that in the Federation were forty clubs, thirty-eight of which sent delegates, representing a membership of 737, of whom 430 are active members. The work is increasing greatly, and the good it accomplishes cannot be overestimated.

They promised to be a lively contest for the choice of the place of the next meeting, to be held Aug. 13, 1905, as Danville, Quincy and Monmouth all desired the honor. On the first vote Quincy was chosen by a safe majority.

Much of the success of the meeting of the state federation, as of the local work, is due to the energy and tireless zeal of Mrs. A. H. Kenniebrew, whose services received the proper recognition when she was re-elected to the office of state secretary.

CONTEST IN D. A. R.

Members of the D. A. R., now in St. Louis, state that one of the greatest political contests in the history of the organization will soon begin, preliminary to the election which will take place at Washington, D. C., next April. The contest will be for regent general, the position now held by Mrs. C. W. Fairbanks. Mrs. Daniel Manning, of New York, former regent president, and now head of the lady board of the world's fair, has for some time been mentioned as a candidate to succeed Mrs. Fairbanks. Now it is reported that Mrs. John M. Horton, of Buffalo, will also be a candidate, and there is astonishment in the ranks. Madames Manning and Horton, related by marriage, have been rivals for some time, and are not on speaking terms. Both have many friends in the organization.

The western contingent have hopes that the split in the east will eventually result in the selection of a western woman for regent general.

ON THE GOLF LINKS

Putting Contest Begins Saturday—Misses Robertson Are Opponents for Final Honors.

The attention of all golfers is called to a championship putting contest, which will be inaugurated on Saturday of this week. An enthusiastic member of the club has offered a handsome trophy for the event, which will be conducted in the following manner: On Saturday, Oct. 15, any lady or gentleman can put once around the clock golf and hand their certified score to some member of the greens committee. From these scores a team of eight gentlemen and eight ladies will be selected, who will play match golf with their own teammates until one lady and one gentleman are left. They will play for the putting championship of the club.

Every golfer in the club is urged to take part, as putting is an art easily mastered by any one. The ladies are practicing daily, and most of the members concede that a lady will be the champion putter.

In the finals for the championship of the Country club, Miss Elizabeth Robertson defeated her sister, Miss Kathryn Robertson, yesterday by 5 up and 4 to go. By a singular coincidence these two sisters have met for the third time in the finals for important trophies; first, two years ago in the central Illinois tournament at Springfield; last year in the Gutheir cup contest on the local links, and yesterday for the first honors of the club.

Those who like a good, stiff game of golf can see one any afternoon this week by following some of the close contests which are being daily played off.

RECEPTION TO NEW PASTOR.

The ladies of the Methodist Episcopal church of Virginia give a reception to their new pastor, Rev. Frank Lucas and family, Wednesday evening in the parlor of the church. It was attended by an unusually large number, all the churches in the city being well represented. The parlors were beautifully decorated with potted plants and cut flowers, asters and cosmos predominating.

Delicate refreshments were served and the evening was most delightfully spent in music and social conversation.

Rev. Mr. Lucas enters upon his pastorate under the most favorable conditions; already the church has manifested new life in a number of ways.

Every seat on the main floor and in the balcony were reserved for the season, the expensive and high class course of attractions on the I. C. lecture course would hardly pay expenses. We can therefore only offer a limited number (500) of seats for the very reasonable prices which we ask for season tickets. A seat sold for single night admissions will bring just twice as much. Some season tickets are left at C. II. Smith's music store. $1.00.

MANY VISITORS HERE.

A large number of persons from surrounding towns in the county and vicinity visited the city Thursday to witness the carnival exhibition. The trains brought in crowds and the livery barns and feed stables did a rushing business. One feed barn cared for over 300 head of horses and was unable to care for more on account of lack of room.

CARNIVAL DRAWS CROWD

THURSDAY BIGGEST DAY OF WEEK

Grand Parade in Evening—Coronation of Queen—Wedding in Lions Den—Other Features.

- ◆ PROGRAM OF FREE ATTRACTIONS TO DAY.
- ◆ 2 p. m. and 7:30 p. m.: High Dive, Southwest corner of Park.
- ◆ 2:15 and 7:15 p. m.: Kilpatrick's Ride for Life, corner East Street and East State street.
- ◆ 4:30 and 10:30 p. m.: Loop the Loop, South Side of Park.
- ◆ 5:00 and 10:45 p. m.: Loop the Gap, corner West Street and West State Street.

Thursday proved the biggest day of the week at the Eagles' Fall Festival and an immense throng of people paraded the streets and visited the attractions from noon until the last free exhibition was concluded at 11:30 o'clock in the evening.

It was a good natured crowd and merriment and fun of infinite variety existed on all sides.

The splendid free attractions had the usual fascination for the spectators, while the Eagles' police court located on the west side of the square created no end of amusement.

It was a great day and no mistake. The tented shows all did a big business and the people seemed delighted with the high character of the performances witnessed.

Thursday was Eagles' and Fraternal day, and the parade in the evening was watched by crowds that lined the sidewalks for blocks, while on the square the throng was greater than ever.

The coronation of the queen was a significant event and passed off with great eclat.

The public wedding in the lions' den was also a feature that drew an immense crowd to the animal tent.

THE PARADE.

The parade formed on North Main street and followed the line of march as heretofore announced. The order was as follows:

Marshals—Thomas Russel, T. W. Endsley, D. E. Kennedy and John Vieira.

Platoon of police.

Virden Eagles' band.

Queen of the carnival and three maids in four-horse carriage.

Twelve flowers girls in carriage. Mayor John R. Davis and members of the local committee.

Eagles' committee.

Visiting Eagles.

Jeffries' Concert band.

Eagles, Aerie No. 509, Jacksonville.

M. W. A., 912, and two floats.

Forresters.

Woodmen of camp 912.

Drum and bugle corps.

M. P. L. council, 200, headed by goat cart and men in comic costumes.

Court of Honor, with men in costume.

Eighth Regiment band.

Company L, Eighth regiment, Illinois national guard.

THE QUEEN.

In the queen's carriage were the queen, Miss Mamie Nunes, and Misses Edith Vasconcellos, Mae Hickman and Maggie Coffey.

In the mayor's carriage were Mayor John R. Davis, Fred Batz, John Boland and Henry Evans of the Eagles' committee.

In the committee's carriage were W. H. McCarthy, president of the local aerie of Eagles; T. W. Allen, George W. Smith and E. M. McGruder, and Mr. Fred Van Sicklen, representing Col. P. J. Mundy.

The two floats of the M. W. A., 912, were very unique and attracted much attention. On the first was an immense log, with members of the camp with axes chopping. The wagon which carried the log was handsomely decorated. The other was a saw mill on a decorated wagon, with the saw in operation.

Fidelity council No. 209, M. P. L., had some amusing contrivances. They were headed by a goat cart, driven by Charles Hollbrook, and following this were W. E. Baker, H. J. Hammond and Joe Roberts, closely allied in a single suit of immense dimensions, with the letters "M. P. L." across the breast of the suit.

THE CORONATION.

Upon the arrival of the parade at the tent of the wild animal show, the queen and maids of honor and the flower girls were escorted to the steel arena, where the coronation was to take place. In the presence of an audience that crowded the tent, Mayor John R. Davis was introduced and in a few fitting words crowned Miss Mamie Nunes, queen of the carnival, and presented her with a handsome diamond ring and a deed to a lot in Herrick, S. D., in accordance with the promise of the committee. At the conclusion of the ceremony the queen was hauled with delight by the assembled throngs.

The queen was very handsomely gowned and presented a beautiful appearance in her flowing robes of state. Her maids of honor, Misses Edith Vasconcellos, Mae Hickman and Maggie Coffey, were also handsomely gowned, and the little flower girls, Misses Ethel Andrews, Myrtle Wilson, Iva Vasconcellos, Fay Mitchell, Eunice Sorrells, Margaret Donahue, Ruth Mitchell, Beulah Sibert, Grace Ehrrott, Mary Hardin, Margaret Pires and Fay Sibert, were charming in their white dresses, and their appearance was greeted with exclamations of approval and admiration by the spectators.

THE WEDDING.

At about 11:30 o'clock William Emmons and Mrs. Louise Stofer, both of Springfield, stepped into the steel cage in which the $50,000 group of lions were loose, accompanied by Mayor Harry Devereux, of Springfield, and Major John R. Davis, of this city. Esquire Richard W. Reid said the words that made them man and wife, and the spectators tendered their hearty congratulations. The happy couple received the sum of $50 from the Carnival company.

Mr. and Mrs. Emmons will leave this morning for St. Louis for a few days of sightseeing at the fair, after which they will be at home in Springfield at Seventh and Jefferson streets.

The marriage in the lions' den certainly caps the climax of freak marriages and is one of the crowning novelties of the Mundus Carnival company. The ceremony of last evening was the thirteenth secured by the company, but the fatal number apparently exerted no baleful influence over the ceremony, and the couple so strangely mated have apparently as many chances of passing a happy life as if they had been united in the holy bonds of wedlock elsewhere and under other conditions.

ARRESTED ON TRAIN

PICKPOCKET CAUGHT WHILE BURLINGTON TRAIN STOPPED AT CONCORD—BROUGHT TO THIS CITY.

A pick-pocket, who answers to the name of William Gillis, was captured at Concord station Thursday afternoon about 2 o'clock, and was brought to this city on Burlington train No. 48. Burlington passengers change cars at Concord, and as A. E. Majors, traveling agent for J. Capps & Sons, of this city, was getting on the Jacksonville and Concord train, he felt some one jostle against him and noticed that his pocketbook, which he carried in his right hip pocket, was missing. He accosted the man next to him, who proved to be Mr. Gillis, and told him that he wanted his purse. Gillis denied having it at first, but when Mr. Majors took him by the collar he gave it up.

Immediately the thief started to run from the train, but was caught at the car door by William Ruppel, a passenger just entering. He was taken in charge by the train crew and the Jacksonville police were notified and requested to meet the train. Policeman Brainer was at the station and as soon as the train arrived took charge of Gillis. He was hurried into the men's waiting room until Captain Kennedy arrived with the patrol wagon, when he was taken to the city prison. When questioned regarding his home, Gillis stated that it was "nowhere he hung his hat." It is believed he hails from Galesburg.

A passenger on the Burlington train stated that Gillis had a partner in the smoking car, who left the train here.
